NOTE FOR: Director of Training and Education

SUBJECT: DDA Management Conference [redacted]
25-26 February 1986

"15422"

While we are still especially alert and invigorated from our morning shower at [redacted] on 26 February, we want to express our appreciation to you and your staff, particularly the staff [redacted], for the truly excellent support, accommodations, and meals that were provided to our office directors. The efficiency and timeliness of the aircraft, the readiness of the facilities, and the support of the local employees were perfect as usual--it made the conference run smoothly. We were able to maintain our schedule and devote our attention to the tasks at hand.

Please extend our appreciation to all concerned.
